From Their Majesties

Greetings to Our populace!

It gives Us great joy to be King and Queen of this great Kingdom.

A momentous event has taken place. At Outlandish We invested Sir Trevor and Lady Fermina as Baron and Baroness of al-Barran. We know they will enjoy years of strength and prosperity and will rule with might and dignity.

Soon we leave for far away lands. His majesty travels to Artemesia for Uprising and then across the great waters to Scotland to fight at War Bands. While you may not make the quest across the ocean, Her Majesty calls you to the field of combat at Lilies War. Lest you leave your Queen in a foreign land, you must rise to defend Her.

Queens prize rapidly approaches. Her Majesty asks you to exhibit your creative efforts both grandiose or freshly discovered so that She and all the Outlands may see the talent possessed by Our artisans. This Queens Prize will focus on helping artisans with constructive evaluations and will be a good opportunity for everyone to prepare for Kingdom Arts and Sciences in October.

Thank you for all the award recommendations so far. It gives Us great joy to hear these good reports, and We hope to continue to receive them throughout Our reign. However, remember they must be submitted on paper.

May your travels see you safely home

Kynan — King

Eleanor — Queen

The momentous day our Grand Fifteenth Tournament is at hand! We must choose our Shire's Defenders to help us vanquish our foes and defend our honor against the ravening hordes. There will be Defenders and tournament champions chosen from Heavy Fighters, Fencers and Archers. Although only those from our Shire may take the title of Defender and wear our baldrics we honor the over-all tourney winners of each category with a prize regardless of their place of origin to honor the time when we could only find champions beyond our borders. In keeping with our Shire's tradition the tourney prizes are fine and worthy of any hero. Prizes include a Sir Haroun made axe and a Lord Edward Cochran made dagger amongst numerous other glorious items.

In addition to Saturday's Heavy Fighting, Fencing and Archery Tourney's there will be a Light Saber Duel to be held by torchlight Saturday night for the adventurous. Sunday will offer Wood Battles and Posable Highland Battles for those who are strong of spirit! Fighters be sure to bring two handed weapons.

For those who wish it, this event also boasts Lady Audrey's Wenches Brawl Tavern! The women of the town are determined to drive the tavern wenches off and a mad resurrection food fight will ensue (green card not required)! Bring boffer foods that are soft centered and not bigger than most heads in order to participate. See Shire website for details.

Other events include a Shire auction (with goods to tempt even the most discriminating buyer), a bardic night, children's activities, A&S classes and a populace A&S competition.

This gorgeous site has flush toilets and showers (Last year the bathrooms got the A&S award!), covered gazebo, pay phone, trees, creek, picnic tables, barbeques, fire rings and electricity at most campsites (some need adapter plugs) Please bring fire extinguishers if you have them. Firewood may be purchased nearby. Fires may be restricted if danger is high. No cannons or firearms allowed. No drumming after 10pm (Park regs). Pets must be leashed. Sale or vending of alcohol is prohibited.

Directions: Best route to I-25 South of Pueblo. Exit 74 (Colorado City), West 3-4 miles to Greenhorn Meadows Park. Left at second entrance. Follow signs.

Cavalier Holiday

Barony of Caerthe, June 4, A.S. XXXV (2000)

Site opens 9:30a • Site Closes 4:00 p
Picnic shelter • Berkeley Park • Denver, CO
Fees: $3.00
Make Checks Payable to "SCA - Caerthe"
Site is DAMP (beer only, in non-glass containers)

Come and gambol in the King's Park. Due to a problem with scheduling, Cavalier Holiday will be on Sunday, June 4th this year and not Saturday as originally listed. The traditional cavalier games of lawn bowling (bocci) and croquet are set for those with a competitive spirit. Chilled teas, lemonade, and water will be provided to quench the thirst brought on by such exertions. Also, a table will be laid with fruit, eggs, and simple cakes. Any more extensive picnic faire is up to you.

The event is also a gathering of non-perishable food for the Food Bank of the Rockies. By this time of year the shelves are getting empty of bounty that filled them during the winter holidays. If you have any questions about appropriate food donations please give me a call, or they always accept cash.

The site will open for people setting up shade pavilions at 9:30, and the merriment should begin at 11:00. Any court will be at any attending Crown's or Coronet's discretion. Prizes will be given for the games competition, decadent and elegant picnics, best cavalier and non-cavalier, and of course the autocrats whim, and Baronial whim.

Directions: Find I-70 and Federal, go south on Federal to 46th, go west on 46th (past the first park with a lake), to Tennyson (almost to Lakeside Amusement Park), go north on Tennyson, to the park entrance on the west side of the street just before the underpass. Damp Site: beer in non-glass containers.

Glory!!! III

Barony of Unser Hafen, June 30-July 3, AS XXXV (2000)

Site opens at Noon on 6/30 • Site closes at Noon on 7/3
LCCC Outdoor Camp • Buford, WY
Site Fee: $10.00, Children under 16 years of age $4, Family cap for site is $30
Inn Plan: $15 for adults (16 and over), $10 for gentles under 16. No family cap on Inn Plan.

Site is Discreetly Wet

Come one, come all to Glory!!! More fighting than even the stoutest knight can handle, rapier blades flashing in the crisp mountain air, bows singing their song of death to the listening trees (combat archers bring your gear!), bardic fires blazing in the still night. Once again we have a new site, one which promises great fighting, great views and more Glory! This site is much more accessible (24 miles west of Cheyenne on I-80), and features beautiful scenery, treed camping areas, a pond for dipping, footbridges, numerous picnic tables and firepits. Pets are allowed (they must be leashed) and there are no noise restrictions. The site is discretely wet (no alcohol containers left on site). We have the entire site to ourselves, so the stage is set for what promises to be the most Glorious Glory yet! No site is perfect and although the site is wet, there is no water on site, so please plan to bring your own water. Keep watching the Unser Hafen web site for pictures of this beautiful site: http://mike.lonetree.com/sca/unser-hafen/index.htm. One more word, this is a beautiful mountain site, and the trees and rocks only come at a small price...we will be at 7,500 feet. This means that nights may be cool and if you are a lowlander, you may want to bring oxygen (or at least take aspirin when you arrive).

CHIRURGEON GENERAL'S WARNING! DO NOT ATTEND GLORY IF YOU DON'T WANT TO FIGHT, FENCE, ARCH AND REVEL UNTIL YOU JUST CAN'T DO ANYMORE.

For the first time Equestrians will be accommodated at Glory!!! We are primarily interested in having mounted security and heralds, to add to the medieval ambiance, but if there is enough interest from the equestrian community, we can also have equestrian competitions. If you are interested in serving as mounted security / herald, or if you simply want to bring horses to the event, please contact the EMIC Lady Rosslin prior to the event. We are asking that only riders rated as "advanced", and mounted on horses with which they are experienced serve as security / heralds. Once again we will offer a complete meal plan for all meals Saturday morning through Sunday night. The autocrat and innkeeper will supply some kind of carnivore substance for those wishing to participate in a potluck on Friday evening, and the Innkeeper promises something for breakfast on Monday. The Innkeeper, Lady Galiana William has good, hot, filling fare planned. Reservations are required for the meal plan so that we can ensure that everyone has more than enough.

Heavy weapons contests and tournaments are being designed by some of the sickest, twisted minds in Unser Hafen, so expect anything and everything. The fencing and archery scenarios promise to be equally gruesome, so plan on unique fun and GLORY!!! Come and join in a true Outlands tradition...."Fight 'till you drop, Revel where you Fall!"

Directions: Make your best way to the intersection of the King's Highway (I-25) and the Calon Highway (I-80) in Cheyenne, Wyoming. Go west on I-80 24 miles to Exit 335 (the Buford Exit). Turn right onto the dirt road at the foot of the off-ramp, past the mailboxes. Follow the winding dirt road generally east for 4.4 miles and voila...you've found Glory!!!

Autocrat: Lord Gwilim de Glamorgan (Mike Lambert), 1506 Welch Street, Fort Collins, CO 80524, mlambert@frii.com

Innkeeper: Lady Galiana William (Debie Lambert) same address and email. Paid reservations accepted by either the Autocrat or Innkeeper (funny how they have the same address isn't it?).

Equestrian Marshal in Charge: Lady Rosslin Katrin von Hohenzollern, (Shannon Moys Clark), 1500 W. Prospect, Fort Collins, CO 80526, dlc@verinet.com

Kingdom Officer's Reports

From The Kingdom Seneschal

I recently overheard a discussion on the subject of holding events in the SCA and particularly the Outlands. One gentle commented that event forms were being sent in to the Kingdom Calendar Coordinator to make events official so that the events would be covered by SCA Insurance. Something just didn't ring accurate in that statement so I did a little research and thought that what I found would be of interest to everyone.

For an event to be covered by SCA insurance the group sponsoring the event is required to advertise at least to local group. This means if your group is just wanting to get together for an SCA gathering like an arts workshop, heralds research symposium, a local revel, or fighter practice you are covered by SCA insurance by simply publishing it in your local news letter. Official events on the other hand are required so stuff of lasting effect (awards, law changes, etc.) can happen (as defined in Corpora). Official events must be submitted and approved by Kingdom, and must be advertised in kingdom newsletter. This speaks specifically to those events where the group is hoping to attract outside interest, possibly the Crown, certainly other groups.

I bring this up because I believe there is a lot of misunderstanding out there on this subject, and that in part is why we get a crowded calendar. My thoughts are if a group wants to hold an event and sees some other group has an event on that date, they should contact that group and talk. You may find that the event that is Official was only intended to be a local thing. You may even find that the other group will promote your event for you because it is different enough from their group's event that it will attract a different audience. The point is to talk to each other.

While on the subject of events I would encourage every group to look into bidding on the upcoming Kingdom events. There is no better way I can think of to showcase your group than to bring the pomp and ceremony of a Kingdom event to your area. I recognize that some smaller groups may be thinking, "We don't have the facilities and manpower to do a Kingdom event," and to that I say there are people out there to help you. There are many gentles from Baronies and Shires, north and south, who have experience with Kingdom events and would be glad to share that experience. Mistress Rosalind, our Kingdom Events Coordinator, has all of the details, and is ready to share them. She tells me that all upcoming Kingdom events are open.

Speaking of Kingdom Events, Master Adam Stedefast has announced that StagsCon IV will be held in Their Majesties' Barony of al-Barran July 8, 2000. It will be a great time for officers and those who would like to be officers to come together to learn the finer points of service to Shire, Barony and Kingdom. There will also be an Autocrats Symposium as well as a Feast Coordinators Symposium, thus expanding the scope of StagsCon's focus on providing service. In keeping with this years theme of "What Has Never Been Done Before," Master Adam will be providing more tantalizing details in the immediate future. Don't miss it.

As always if you need to know more about any of the things happening within the Seneschals Office, don't hesitate to contact your local Seneschal, any of the Kingdom Deputies, or Myself. We are all ready and able to provide needed information.

In Service,

Master Rhys Afalwin

From the Kingdom Minister of Arts & Sciences

Greetings to all as the warm summer breezes waft us into the hectic yet enjoyable tournament season.

You will note that more and more summer camping events are offering some kind of arts and sceinces classes or competitions. I urge you to take advantage of this opportunity to escape the hot Outlands sun, and spend an hour or two in the cool shade, enjoying the exchage of old ideas and learning new ones. It is a wonderful way not only to learn different skills, but to meet and become friends with folks from the far reaches of the Kingdom and beyond.

A note about the change to Kingdom Law regarding Arts and Sciences events. There will be one mandatory Kingdom Arts and Sciences event per year, to be held in October. It will be the decision of the then Crown as to whether it will be competition, collegium or both. I hope that this will encourage the smaller groups to develop their skills throughout the year, and the larger groups as well, so that all may join together in a Grand Gathering once a year to share ideas and show what has been learned. This also allows a smaller group the opportunity to volunteer for a portion of the event's work, rather than taking the complete responsibility upon themselves. It is through small tasks that we truly learn what is needed to complete the large challenge.

I encourage all to attend Queen's Prize in Drygestan, whether as entrant, sponsor or populace. This is a wonderful opportunity to see the works of the up and coming artisans of our kingdom. I do believe that a past entrant in Queen's Prize, THLady Liadan, is now the Kingdom Arts and Sciences Grand Champion for her blackwork embroidery. But it was in this friendly venue that she first started displaying her work for the general populace to admire. And don't forget the tokens! Beads, buttons, bookmarks, sweet treats, all those little thank you's from the populace that mean so much to the entrants. I have either entered or sponsored in all of the Queen's Prizes since the first, and it remains my favorite arts and sciences display venue.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT: Stories are more important to the people than bread. They tell us what we were and who we are.

In service,

Caelte, Ban-Filidhe

From the Kingdom Scribe

Unto the People of the Outlands come these words from The Honorable Lady Maredudd, Kingdom Scribe:

Once again, for the Reign of Martino and Aindrea, the Outlands College of Scribes has provided many scrolls for the Crown and for the people of the Outlands. To each of the scribes who contributed their skill to the commonweal I offer my sincere thanks.

Those scribes who volunteered to do scrolls for Martino and Aindrea include Amber the Quietest, Arwen Southernwood, Killian MacKenzie, Rivka Vladimirovna Rivkina, Meghan nic Guinne, Sadhbh ni Donnabhain, Fiachra ni Clardhubhain, Grellán ÓConchobhair, Elenfea of Starwood, Marguerite d'Isere, Meadhbh Daingen int Slebhe, Taryn Brannick, Aidan Cocrinn, Caelte Caitchairn, Gwendolene McIver, Eric Edmundsson, Signy of Stavanger, Tatiana Pavlovna Sokolova, Dietrich von Andernach, Monika von Zell, Drahomira Jaroslavna, Nadrah bint Lu'Lu' al-Qadisi, Rosslin von Hohenzollern, Thorhalla Bjarnadottir, Kathryn Brian Chevreuil, Fekete Hollo Noemi, Maria sol de Leon, Sabina de Falaise, Averil du Bois d'Avignon, Ailinn Shadowfox, Teresa, Asta Olafsdottir, Arianrod ni Conchobhar, Lorcan MacColla, Bjarki Gulbjornsson, Sarah Archer, Margherita, Christina McCarty, Rowena Ginevra Lyon, Guillaume Francois Rolland de Gonzac, Bahiyyah, and Sasha Gray. Bennet Murray has distinguished herself by completing the most scrolls of any of the scribes this reign.

If you would like to join this illustrious company of scribes, or if you have been inactive and wish to receive assignments again, please contact me (contact information is listed in this copy of the OH). The Kingdom Scribe's Office is always looking for more scribes, and I encourage you to sharpen those nibs, wet those paints, and give me a call.

In other news this month, the new edition of the Kingdom Scribe's Handbook is done! I think it is the most beautiful Kingdom Scribe's Handbook in the Known World, and we have The Honorable Lady Tatiana to thank for all her hard work as the editor. The Handbook contains the standard texts for all the Outlands' awards, and for most of the Baronial awards. It also contains instructions for writing custom texts, or for customizing the standard texts. (Remember that any custom texts must be approved by the Kingdom Scribe before putting the text on a scroll.) There are articles which will get you started in calligraphy and illumination, and instructions for more advanced scribes. It is an indispensable tool, and I encourage all the scribes have access to a copy.

There are several ways that you can get your own personal copy. I have a few remaining copies containing both black and white and color pages available for $5 each, although the price will increase for the next printing. Contact me to purchase one of these. Each group also has a copy that may be photocopied for personal use; see your group's scribe or the seneschal to borrow it. Additionally, the handbook is available in .PDF format in several versions on the web. The URL is http://216.92.95.157/scribes/index.html. If you have any ideas for the next edition, please contact me! Writing the Handbook is a huge job, and we welcome any input or help that you may offer. Once again, many, many thanks to the College of Scribes for all your hard work!

In service,

The Honorable Lady Maredudd

From the Kingdom Hospitaller

Greetings,

I just wanted to remind everyone that summer is now approaching and we will be more visible to the public during the next 6 months. Whether it is an indoor or outdoor event, if you have a person who is interested in the SCA, please supply them with any information you may have. If you don't have information with you, put them in touch with the Hospitaller (whether in person or give them the phone number of the Hospitaller). Invite them to another event and give them opportunity to get in touch with a Hospitaller so they can have the option of wearing loaner garb. If this person is uncomfortable with wearing garb to their first event, politely ask them their concerns and you may be able to put their mind at ease. Remember the first time you wore garb. It was uncomfortable for many of us. If they still feel uncomfortable wearing garb, then tell them they are still welcome to the event, and once they are at the event, they may change their mind.

Remember that we are all hospitallers to the SCA. If you have questions regarding the upcoming summer contacts we will have with the public, please feel free to call me (303) 254-4743 or the Hospitaller for your area.

Board Notes and Other Items of Interest

Queen's Prize

Shire of Drygestan, August 12, AS XXXV (2000)

The purpose of the Queen's Prize event is for entrants to show off their work in a low pressure and positive environment and have their work discussed and evaluated. There will be several changes this year in attempt to make the event friendlier. These are just experiments for this year's event based on suggestions from the populace. You may remember from years past that there was a Queen's prize, judges' prize and populace prize given out. To remove some of the competitive air of the event, there will be no judges' prize and no populace prize awarded. There will be no judging sheets. However, there will be lists available of potential items to discuss between entrant and evaluator. Either the evaluator can take notes or the entrant, whoever is comfortable doing that. It has been said many times that the greatest benefit of Queen's Prize is the time entrants get to spend with evaluators going over entries.

Populace members are encouraged to bring small tokens to leave with entrants (candy, trinkets, etc.) The site is dry, however, arrangements are being made to have evaluation of alcoholic items done off site. There is no feast planned for the event. As a suggestion only, entrants may want to take their sponsor to dinner in order to have more quality time together. This is only a suggestion to continue the camaraderie of the day. The rules for the Queen's Prize event are listed below. Please read them carefully!

Entrants:

1.) All entrants must have a sponsor from the Order of the Laurel, Ladies of the Rose, or a Companion of the Flower of the Outlands.
2.) Entrants may not be members of the Order of the Laurel.
3.) You can either be a sponsor or an entrant, not both.
4.) Entrants do not have to do something in a field for which the sponsor is known. Entries may be in any field.
5.) Entries will be evaluated on the aforementioned criteria in a kind, humane and constructive manner.
6.) Completion of entries is highly encouraged. If the work is incomplete, the entrant should be prepared to explain the finishing of the entry.
7.) The entrant shall complete all work.
8.) However, group entries need only one sponsor. All members of the group should attend the event in order to discuss the entry with the evaluators. All portions of the group entry must be checked in on time. For example, dance troupes must have all members ready to go at the assigned performance time, no excuses. In addition, the group must inform the sponsor of the number of contributors to the project prior to the event. (See Sponsor's responsibilities for group entry below.)
9.) Performance entries should be kept to 5 minutes or less in length if possible.
10.) Please make every attempt to be with your entry during the assigned judging time as we are planning on having face-to-face judging. There will be a schedule posted.
11.) The site is not suited for equestrian activities, sorry! (It is not suited for hound coursing, snake charming, sheep herding, llama treks, camel races and elephant parades either, although I would love to see elephant barding some day.-Mina)

Sponsors:

1.) A sponsor's job is to encourage and support the entrant being sponsored.
2.) The sponsor may not physically assist in the production of an entry, but may teach skills, help direct research efforts, review documentation, review display techniques, etc. in order to facilitate the production of the entry.
3.) Sponsors are responsible for pre-registering their entrants. Sponsors are required to list the names and registration information of all members of a group entry.

4.) Sponsors must be members of the Order of the Laurel, Ladies of the Rose, or Companions of the Flower of the Outlands. No one may sponsor himself or herself.
5.) Each sponsor must bring at least one "prize" or token, preferably made by their own hand, for each entrant they are sponsoring. In this manner, everyone will receive at least one "prize"; however, feel free to make extra tokens to award personally to other entrants. If sponsoring a group entry, that sponsor must bring "prizes" or tokens equal to the number of entrants in the group.
5.) There is no limit to the number of people you may sponsor, but try not to sponsor so many that you cannot give adequate encouragement and help to all.
6.) If either the sponsor or the entrant is unable to attend the event, it is the sponsor's responsibility to make sure the entries and prizes get to the event on time.
7.) Sponsors will be asked to include a list of areas they would like to evaluate on the registration form. This will help the organizers of the event match evaluators with the type of entry they feel most able to evaluate. This is no guarantee that a sponsor who is expert in music will not be asked to evaluate food items! The organizers will do the best they can to give the entrants the most knowledgeable evaluators possible. All entries must be checked in by 10 a.m. No entries will be received late except by prior approval of the Crown or Duchess Mina. If interested in sponsoring or entering, but do not have an appropriate partner, feel free to call or write Duchess Mina.

To register for Queen's Prize PLEASE PRINT OR TYPE the following information:

Name, address, home group (shire, barony, etc.) and Phone # of Sponsor, list of areas the Sponsor would like to evaluate; Name, address, home group (shire, barony, etc.) and phone # of Entrant; Type of entry (i.e. Woodwork, Costume, etc.); Brief description of entry and approx. dimensions. For performance entries, please give the approximate length of the performance and any special requirements for the performance. Interkingdom Archery Competition

There are no rule changes from last year, aside from the updated effective date. You can write to me at ikac@dellarco.com to request a copy of the IKAC and IKCAC rules or via snail mail at: Keeper of the IKAC, c/o Jonathan Satcher, 23000 Edmonds Way #201, Edmonds, WA, 98020-8200, USA. Please specify which set of rules you want and whether you want them in Word, RTF or text format. I will also have a Palm PRC version of the rules available soon, both on the web site and by direct request. Scores can be sent via e-mail to ikac@dellarco.com. Please indicate the Kingdom and date of the event on the subject line. E-mail scores submissions must include, at a minimum: the Kingdom, the name and date of the event, the archer-in-charge, the names of the archers, the divisions they're competing in, and their score with breakdown. A full description of the divisions, scoring and the necessary information to report are found in the IKAC and IKCAC rules.

Archers-in-charge, please be extra careful when scoring period IKACs. The period division has their own specific target and scoring system. Please refer to the IKAC rules for more information. If I suspect that a period IKAC was recorded using the standard scoring system (1-5) and after investigation it cannot be determined which scoring method was actually used on the range I may have to disqualify that particular score. At this time the period division rules allow fiberglass in the period bows, however I'm thinking of removing fiberglass from the period division next season. I'd like comments, please.

Recently the question came up whether repeating crossbows were legal and, if so, do they have any limits in the speed ends. My official stance for this season is that repeating crossbows are legal and there are no limits to their use other than what is already specified in the current rules. I invite discussion on this topic from both sides. I'd also like archers-in-charge to note on the score sheet when someone is using a repeating crossbow so I can see if they have an unfair advantage over standard open and period crossbows.

Current Standings as of 4/27/2000

From the Outlands Ombudsman

I would like to take this opportunity to introduce myself. My name is Beth Morris and as of the April Board meeting, I am your new ombudsman from the Board of Directors. Known in the Society as Keilyn FitzWarin, I am a member of the Orders of the Laurel and of the Pelican, and I live in the Kingdom of Atlantia. As your Ombudsman, I will attempt to be both your voice (should the need arise) and your ears (should items come up which affect your realm) on the Board of Directors. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions or concerns I may be able to assist you with.

In addition, the Board will soon be publishing various proposed changes to Corpora, etc. We heartily encourage commentary on these matters and on any other items we may publish in the future. These are your governing documents - please give us the benefit of your opinion on them. Similarly, please take a few minutes to comment on any or all of the Board nominees (the list is available on the SCA web page at www.sca.org and is published periodically in the newsletter). We can only work with the comments we receive, so please, share your thoughts with us! My thanks.

I remain, in service to the Society,

Applicants must be available for the four quarterly Board Discussion Sessions per year (typically held on Fridays), held in conjunction with four Board meeting days per year (typically on Saturdays). As Thursdays and Sundays tend to be travel days, each applicant must have sixteen days available per year, of which eight are week days. Additional traveling may be required. Availability for up to eight evening conference calls per year (generally starting at 9:00 p.m. Eastern Time) is also required.

Applicants must possess good telephone skills, and be very capable of interacting with unique SCA personalities. Capability of processing and distilling large amounts of information from different sources is a must. Organizational and problem solving skills are essential.

Applicants must possess enough space at home for a medium sized office, have immediate access to PC and printer, possess word processing skills, and be email accessible.

Having held a kingdom level office(s) is desirable, but not required.

Resumes (mundane and medieval, including awards and titles) must be sent to:

Andrew Smith (Duke Andrew of Riga), Executive Assistant to the Board of Directors, 1021 Seventh Street, Norco, CA 92860

Event Announcement Information

Unto the populace of the great and glorious Outlands, does Laird Duncan MacAllister, Kingdom Chronicler, send greetings. Listed below you will find the requirements that have been set forth for Outlands Event Announcements. Please note that those items listed as 'Mandatory' must be present in the appropriate event announcement, or I will be unable to print the announcement.

Mandatory in ALL event announcements:

- ☐ Name of the Event
- ☐ Sponsoring Group
- ☐ Event Date(s)
- ☐ Mundane name of site
- ☐ Contact Information for the Autocrat
- ☐ Contact Information for Reservations (if not Autocrat, and they are being taken)
- ☐ Contact Information for Head Cook (If serving food)
- ☐ Contact Information for additional organizers (Crash, fighting, etc.)
- • If reservations are being taken:
  - ☐ Deadline for acceptance
  - ☐ All associated costs (site, feast, discounts, etc.)
  - ☐ How to make checks payable

Mandatory in FINAL event announcement (Month of):

- ☐ All above information
- ☐ Site Open and Close times
- ☐ Mundane address of the site
- ☐ Alcohol Status (Wet, dry, discreetly wet, etc.)
- ☐ Directions to site (include distances, street names, etc.)
  - • Do NOT assume signs will always be visible
- ☐ All associated costs (site, feast, discounts, etc.)

Optional, but highly recommended:

- ☐ A map to the site
- ☐ Schedule of events
- ☐ Feast menu (if feast is provided)
- ☐ Other pertinent site information (pet restrictions, water availability, etc.)

'Contact Information' for autocrats as mentioned above is defined as: SCA Name, Mundane Name, address, phone number with area code, and an E-mail address if one is available. Contact Information' for other coordinators as mentioned above is defined as: SCA Name, Mundane Name, phone number with area code, and an E-mail address if one is available.

Autocrats, please take notice of the article size constraints, and try to stay within them. All event articles are allowed three (3) showings in the Outlandish Herald, one (1) of which MUST be the month of the event (i.e. A March event MUST run in the March OH). The other two publication months are typically the two months preceding the event. An autocrat may request publication more than two months in advance, but that publication will count against the three (3) publication limit. Additional printings may be purchased at the current advertising rates. Kingdom Events (Crown, Coronation, A&S Competition/Collegium, and others as designated by the Crown) receive one (1) page in the publications prior to the event, and two (2) pages the month of the event. Non-Kingdom Events receive one-half (½) page in the publications prior to the event, and one (1) page the month of the event. Additional space may be purchased for any publication month at the current advertising rates. Current advertising rates are listed in the front of the Outlandish Herald. Where possible, please provide the Kingdom Chronicler's office with a prior month article, and a month of article fitting the above criteria for publication. The OH is printed presently with an 8-point font that allows for approximately 300 words in a one-half (½) page article, and 600 words in a one (1) page article.
